Our Fussy Buzzy Aeroplane

Words & Music by Charles William Caldwell

Published by Original Songs Music Co.
309 Broadway, N.Y.

Our Fussy Buzzy Aeroplane.

Words and Music by CHARLES WILLIAM CALDWELL.

Moderato.
f
1. Af - ter all the a - ges past, Man has won a - gain at last, What has
2. Un - der Heav - ens might - y scroll, Which ex - tends from pole to pole, We have
3. We have tri - umphed in the air, We will con - quer "Ov - er there;" Un - cle
4. When the cru - el war shall cease, With the dawn of per - fect peace, We will p al - ways seemed in vain; He goes sail - ing through the air, Humming, found a new do - main, For our Pos - tal Ser - vice grand, Sail - ing Sam must win a - gain, He will swat the beast - ly Hun, 'Till the join in glad re - frain, With a whole world liv - ing free, Crowned with hum-ming ev - 'ry-where, In his Fus - sy Buz - zy Aer - o - plane.
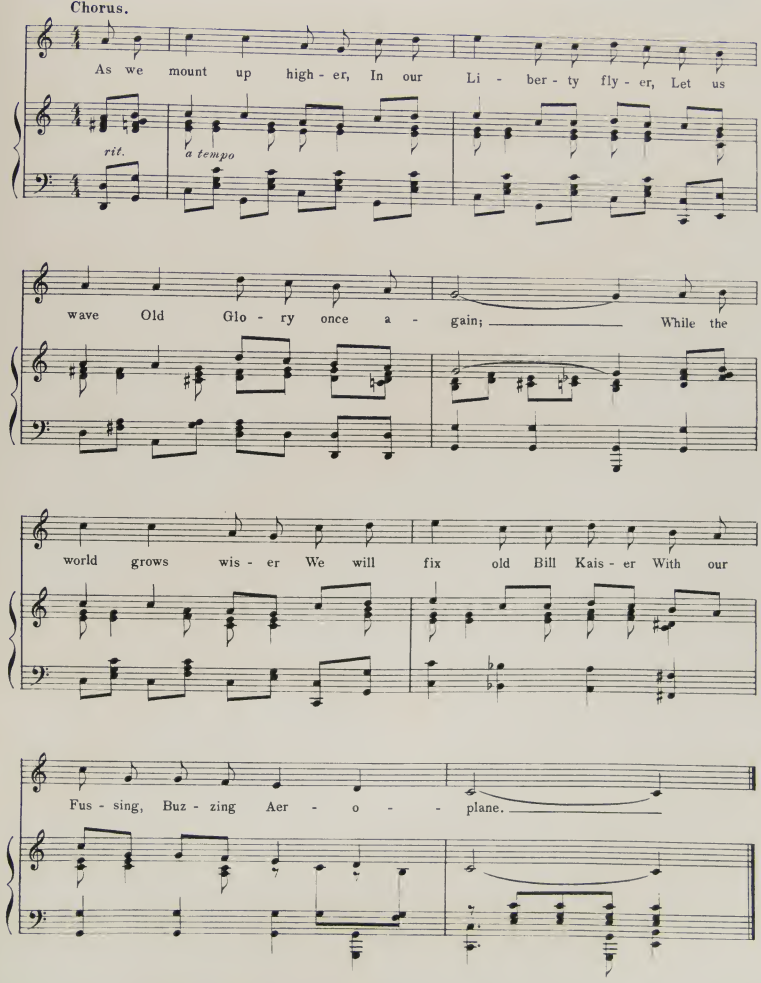
ov - er sea and land, In our Fus - sy Buz - zy Aer - o - plane.
vic - to - ry is won, With his Fus - sy Buz - zy Aer - o - plane.
glorious li - ber - ty, By our Fus - sy Buz - zy Aer - o - plane.

Copyright MCMXVIII by Charles William Caldwell.
Published by Original Songs Music Co 609 B'way, N.Y.



Chorus.
As we mount up high - er, In our Li - ber - ty fly - er, Let us rit.
a tempo
wave Old Glo - ry once a - gain; While the world grows wis - er We will fix old Bill Kais - er With our Fus - sing, Buz - zing Aer - o - plane.

F.J.LAWSON CO.N.Y.